THE FRENCH CAFES.

The morning is the time to set out, at ten o'clock, when, entering by the street of La Lorraine, you may commence with the universal restaurant, test as the valtors, in a body, white-aproned and in shirt sleeves, are finishing their breakfasts. The early meal at this station is charged for insits erows, and dinner doubte that amount, including very lair claret, atthough I see visitors adding to their repasts such remarkable combinations of ices, coffee, thosolate, sherbets, and other extras, that no wonder they look aghast at their bills. At Goupet's the managers pride themselves particularly on their store of English comestibles, and Cross & Blackwell's pickles and sauces, Hun Joy & Tahner's bisceits, and, of course, Alsop's and Buschei's, and Encaly & Parking porters, the 1st of which, next to the pale ale, is the most hegely consumed With these, I notice mountains of addishes, in red profusion, fresh from market, and the attendants ungazed in preparing them, not in the subous, on the very tables they are soon to decorate; also circlouds, theraply, of asparagus of such a size as we rively see thome; stacks of encambars, heyerd up bywets, very additions, a good wentth of oranges, but nothing, it must be confessed, very chasp

THE AMERICAN OL MURSE

* • I am now, I am sure, getting near the continent of America. There are gilled amnouncements of sherry coliblers, brunds smostly brands, pin and whisky cock tails. And now here are the United States themselves, with colored waiters—not all, for you may espy in the brickground certain graceful young ladius in floating ratment of white—and Sambo is particularly stert and crul. The inducements to imper are, among others, i.e.d. milk punch in puriction, "freeli opsters on the shell from New York," strawberry short cake," and a "ladius' purice with peano." In no other department throughout the exhibition can I find the word "gent," addressed in letters of gold to possible customers. The ordered. Spare that Dorg.

Owners of unmuzzled dogs will find sultable expression of their feelings in the following prayer.

Foliceman, spare that dorg! touch not asingle hair; he worries many a hog from ont his muddy lair. Oh! when he was a pup, no frisky and so plump, he tapped his milk from a cup, when hungry, at a jump; and then his funny tricks, so funny in that pitce, so fail of canisu licks pony your hands and face. You will surely let him live! Oh, do not kill him dead; he wage his marrative, and prays for life—not lead Go, get the muzzio now, and put upon his month; and atop that bow wow wow, and endency to dromb.

If is is our children's pet, companion of their joy; you will not kill him yet, and thus their lopes destroy. No, p'liceman, spare that pup; touch not a single bair; oh, put your pistil up, and go away from there.

Additional details of the execution of Emperor Maximilian and his associates have been received. At six of cited on the morning of the 18th the troops of Escopedo formed a short distance from the city for the execution of Maximilian and his denerals, the people of Quartero flocking by thousands to see the closing scenes. At seven the belts toll and sunonce that the prison for the last time and are on their way to their execution. After a few moments they appear, drawn in carnages with a large guard around them; the Emperor first, Mirumon next, and Meja last. The carriages stop, and the prisoners get out, and among the conclave you can lardly see a dry eye. Tokens of dissatisfaction are manifested, and Maximilian on alighting is saluted by the people. In an easy and graceful menore and with an elastic step he marched to the fated spot. On taking his position the Emperor spoke in a ciear, from manner, and with nuthing of bravado. He seemed to feel his situation and said when he was first waited upon at home by the deputation from Mexico, who came with credentials, offering him the government of the country, he retused. At a second meeting the proposition was again presented and he replied that it convinced that the majority thought it was to their interest to place him at the hend of the Government, he might consent. Another deputation which did him there was no other course to pursue, he accepted the call. He deviced that the two ord had pledged their faith to him. He never would have done the net had it not been for the Government of Maxico. In conclusion he hoped his blood would stop the effusion of blood in the country.

Miramons spoke from a paper. He tott them that he was no traiter, but had always been against the drsorder of the country. It is should did eas he hived, a Conservative, satisfied to die for his country. Meja made no address.

Omaha dispatches say. On Saturday morning some soldiurs from Laranie went to Rafferty's Kanch, Sve miles distant, and demanded whiles, and because they were refused, they threatened to burn the ranch. A second demand being reliated, the soldiers stacked the atorekeeper and one of their number was shot. The soldiers then formed a line and fred several shots at the ranch. Subsequently the Pratos Marshal, with soldiers, arrested the ecupants of the ranch and took the safe and desks ont of the building. The safe was afterwards robbed and the ranch turned by the soldiers. The proprietor estimates has loss at sixty thousand dollars. A court marthal at Fort Laramie was examining into matters.

When all this is considered, the Rev. N. Mignault feels that this application to purchase tickets entitling to a gift at the fair will not be made in vain nor considered intrusive. Send on dellar to his address, which will entitle you to ticket to the fair and to a prize. A partial list of prises can be seen on the back of the ticket. As to the matter of Jotteries or anything of that character, the Kev. N. M. is as much opposed to them as any other Christian; his is no such scheme, or the ecclesiastical authorities would not have given their kind approbation, which may be seen below. Let prompt attention b to the Rev. NAP. MIGNAULT, Titusville, Posteffic drawer 1,265, in Postoffice orders, so that the Fair may take place about ninety days from date. Remember, only 15,000 tickets, at one dollar each cuttiling the holder to a free admittance and a prize, some of which are worth $500.

Appropation of the Administrator.—Thi is to certify, that Rev. Napoleon Mignault, pastor of St. Titus' church, Titusville, Pa., proposes to pay the beavy debts on his church and parsonage and convent by getting up a Grand Glft Concert and Fair; indeed, he must have recourse to some means of this kind, otherwise the generous Cathincans of this kind, otherwise the generous Catholics of Titusville, who have already been overtaxed in consequence of the large improvements made, will not be able to pay off their debts. I approxe of the zeal that dictates the enterprise.

[L. S.] JOHN D COADY, Administrator. TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.--I, the un dersigned, Pastor of St. Titus' church, Titusville, Pa, do hereby certify that the proceeds of our Grand Fair and Gift Distribution, to take place in this city, shall be appropriated to the exclusive charatable object of liquidating the many debte of our church, parsonage and convent-Fair to take place in about ninety days. seem, there is scarcely in observable difference between the Hiteksite and Orthodox members. Both hate slavery, both are practical abstinants from hitolicating dribts; both have a prediffection for simplicity in dress and manners; both are fond of good bouses and good living, as six all cultivated people; both insist on education as the bottom-stops of character and usefulness, the young men of both west in the battle field to fight in the great dight of human liberty, white the young women of both followed the camps as nurses and to cheer on what they religiously lott to be "A glorious warfare". The old people on both sides tried to convince them that it was wrong "to violate their peace principles," but failing to do that they appred no money to send them off well furnished, with many a hearty prayer that they would trait the robel flag in the dust, set free their ward, the negro slave, and return to tall the story of freedom's victory. There is less inconsistency in this thun appears on the surface, for the Quekers have always held slavery to be a perpetual war on the negro, and the question was between two kinds of war and peace."
